Parish Council Consultation responses

Question	Nether	Dunnington	Osbaldwick	Strensall	Elvington	Haxby	Earswick Poppleton
Support for		Yes		Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes consistency re
codes
Do assessment	Yes	Yes	Yes – previous	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes proposals strike			arrangements right balance			were unnecessarily
			over bureaucratic
How should	As present	Ordinary		Joint Committee	Joint Committee	Joint Committee	Joint Committee
Committee be		Committee set up
If a Joint	As present	N/A		Decision is taken	Seek	Nominations	On a rotation Committee how				at a YLCA Branch	nominations and	though YLCA and	basis to appoint				meeting after	vote through	vote circulating ALL	YLCA
				parish councils (including non member parishes) requesting information about how
				parish councils
				are represented by up to the number of parish councillors to be

Volunteer members from Parishes (to represent all Parishes) could continue as under the present arrangement. An alternative arrangement could be that each Parish Council is represented in turn for a period on a rota basis — if 3 members are initially chosen from Parish Councils then one retires each year and is replaced by a representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement			1 members from Parishes (to represent all Parishes) could continue as under the present arrangement. An alternative arrangement could be that each Parish Council is represented in turn for a period on a rota basis — if 3 members are initially chosen from Parish Councils then one retires each year and is replaced by a representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement		elected to serve.
Parishes (to represent all Parishes) could continue as under the present arrangement. An alternative arrangement could be that each Parish Council is represented in turn for a period on a rota basis — if 3 members are initially chosen from Parish Council sthen one retires each year and is replaced by a representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement represent all Parishes) could continue as under the present arrangement. An alternative arrangement could be that each Parish Council is represented in turn for a period on a rota basis — if 3 members are initially chosen from Parish Councils then one retires each year and is representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement Parishes) could continue as under the present arrangement. An alternative arrangement could be that each Parish Council is represented in turn for a period on a rota basis — if 3 members are initially chosen from Parish Councils then one retires each year and is replaced by a representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement		Parishes (to continue as under the present arrangement. An alternative arrangement could be that each Parish Council is represented in turn for a period on a rota basis – if 3 members are initially chosen from Parish Councils then one retires each year and is replaced by a representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement under the present arrangement. An alternative arrangement could be that each Parish Council is represented in turn for a period on a rota basis — if 3 members are initially chosen from Parish Councils then one retires each year and is replaced by a representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement		Parishes) could present arrangement. An alternative arrangement could be that each Parish Council is represented in turn for a period on a rota basis — if 3 members are initially chosen from Parish Councils then one retires each year and is replaced by a representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement		continue as arrangement. An alternative arrangement could be that each Parish Council is represented in turn for a period on a rota basis — if 3 members are initially chosen from Parish Councils then one retires each year and is replaced by a representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement		under the
An alternative arrangement could be that each Parish Council is represented in turn for a period on a rota basis — if 3 members are initially chosen from Parish Councils then one retires each year and is replaced by a representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement		present arrangement could be that each Parish Council is represented in turn for a period on a rota basis — if 3 members are initially chosen from Parish Councils then one retires each year and is replaced by a representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement		arrangement.
could be that each Parish Council is represented in turn for a period on a rota basis — if 3 members are initially chosen from Parish Councils then one retires each year and is replaced by a representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement		An alternative each Parish Council is represented in turn for a period on a rota basis — if 3 members are initially chosen from Parish Councils then one retires each year and is replaced by a representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement		arrangement Council is represented in turn for a period on a rota basis — if 3 members are initially chosen from Parish Councils then one retires each year and is replaced by a representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement		could be that represented in turn for a period on a rota basis — if 3 members are initially chosen from Parish Councils then one retires each year and is replaced by a representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement		each Parish turn for a period on a rota basis — if 3 members are initially chosen from Parish Councils then one retires each year and is replaced by a representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement		Council is on a rota basis — if 3 members are initially chosen from Parish Councils then one retires each year and is replaced by a representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement		represented in if 3 members are initially chosen from Parish Councils then one retires each year and is replaced by a representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement		turn for a period initially chosen from Parish Councils then one retires each year and is replaced by a representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement		on a rota basis – from Parish Councils then one retires each year and is replaced by a representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement		if 3 members are Councils then one retires each year and is replaced by a representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement		initially chosen one retires each year and is replaced by a representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement		from Parish year and is replaced by a representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement		Councils then replaced by a representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement		one retires each representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement		year and is representative from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement		replaced by a from the next Parish Council and serves for three years. This arrangement and serves for three years. This arrangement three years. This arrangement		Parish Council arrangement		and serves for arrangement		three years. This would ensure all

			Parish Councils become involved and there is continuity of common purpose amongst the Parish representatives. This arrangement could also cultivate relationships between Parishes and the City of York Council Officers.
Should SC have power to censure	Yes	Yes	Yes but only if unanimous or by specified majority	Yes	Yes	Yes
Composition of new SC	As present	As now	As now	As present	As present	As present
Would electronic system for registration be welcome	Yes, should be updated by the Clerk	Only if manual system also retained	Through Clerk directly or via nominated CYC Officer	Broadly welcome (although not unanimously)	Yes	Yes – 100%

Parish Council Consultation responses

Question	Wigginton	Bishopthorpe Support for	Very supportive	Agree all should consistency re		work to same codes		standards
Do assessment	Yes	Yes but may proposals strike		need right of right balance		appeal against MO decision
How should	Joint Committee	Joint Committee Committee be
set up
If a Joint	Revolving	Parish Committee how	smaller number	Councillors could to appoint	of PC's	be nominated by individual Parish Councils each year and a simple vote be taken of all
		Parish Councils
		to elect members to the Committee
Should SC have	Yes if there are	If Parish Councils power to	voting PC	expect to play a censure	members. Need	full part in the a right of appeal	Committee, yes Composition of	Agree with	City Councillors, new SC	monitoring	Parish reports and	Councillors and consensual approach	perhaps Independent Members Would electronic	Yes	Yes, could be system for		delegated to registration be		Parish Clerk welcome					