4. Building a New City Centre Offer From Sycamore House

Resolved: That;

- (i) It be agreed to accept the Department of Health Capital grant to develop the Safe Haven Project in York.
- (ii) Sycamore House be utilised to accommodate Voluntary and Community Sector agencies in the building as part of the model.

Reason: To ensure that;

- The services within this report offer a diverse, effective and sustainable solution for adults and young people using services in York.
- It supports our long-term vision for support services to be provided by the voluntary and community sector. The developments outlined in the report represent a very positive step in this direction.

- Young people can access relevant, holistic and non-stigmatising information and support from a suitable city centre location
- Our mental health services are aligned with the needs of our residents.
