4. DETERMINATION OF WHETHER TO CONSULT ON THE POSSIBLE INTRODUCTION OF A PUBLIC SPACE PROTECTION ORDER AT HOLGATE DOCK.

Resolved: That a six week consultation process with local residents and interested stakeholders be undertaken by City of York Council to determine whether to introduce a Public Space Protection Order for Holgate Dock.

Reason: To ensure that the council actively addresses the issue of anti-social behaviour in our communities.

6. URGENT ITEM: PROPOSED CHANGES TO THE CITY OF YORK HOUSING TENANCY AGREEMENT - RESULTS OF CONSULTATION

Resolved: That the proposed changes to the housing tenancy agreement, as set out in paragraphs 17 to 38 of the report, be agreed subject to the tenancy agreement including a clause stating that there would also be a requirement for tenants to gain permission to breed from a pet and that breeding for commercial gain would not be granted.

Reason: To better enable the council to enforce tenancy conditions for the benefit of all tenants, enable customers to budget more effectively, make sure those most in need get council homes that become vacant and to help promote animal welfare/responsible pet ownership.
