

Local Authorities (Executive Arrangements) (Meetings and Access to Information) (England) Regulations 2012

Under the provisions of the above named Regulations which came into force on 10th September 2012, the following report entitled:-

City Centre Access – Security Measures – update including tender return

may contain an annex which may be considered, in private, at the meeting of Executive to be held on Thursday 28 July 2022.

The annex may be considered in private as it contains Exempt Information as described in Paragraph 6a and 6b of Part 1 of Schedule 12A to the Local Government Act 1972 (as amended) in that information which reveals that the authority proposes: (a) to give under any enactment a notice under or by virtue of which requirements are imposed on a person; or (b) to make an order or direction under any enactment.

Please note that the covering report for this item of business will be available for public inspection and there will be public discussion of the business at the meeting. It is only if there is likely to be a need to discuss the details of the commercially sensitive information that the meeting will move into private session.

Should you wish to make representation as to the annex being discussed in public, please contact:
