

What is York's Enhanced Local Offer to Care Leavers?

We believe that everyone has a responsibility to help those who have been in care to overcome the difficulties that they experienced in their childhoods, so that they can lead successful lives.

More than anything else we recognise that the help and support that you receive from your corporate parents in York is critical to whether you make the transition from care to independence successfully.

We take this responsibility very seriously. For Children in our Care and Care Leavers we strive to be excellent Corporate Parents, having high aspirations for you and encouraging you to achieve your goals and potential. A good parent means keeping you safe and providing you with the best support to meet your individual needs. We can help you to access housing, education and training, work experience, health services and we are here to support you to make the most of leaving care.

Our professionals working with you share high aspirations for you and make sure that all the children in our care and care leavers have all the opportunities we would give our own children through good access to high quality education, health, and social care services.

This offer focuses on how we work across the partnership to meet your needs to achieve the best of outcomes.

What does the Pathway Team do?

We are your 'Corporate Parents' which means, it is our responsibility to be good parents to all of our care leavers and support you in your journey to independence.

Our team is made up of Pathway Workers, an accommodation officer and an Education Training and Employment Adviser who will support you with your journey to independent living. We have a legal duty to support you and provide you with assistance until you are 21, or up until 25 if you are in education, or if you wish to have an ongoing service.

The Pathway Team is based in at Howe Hill.

What is my Pathway Plan?

Every young person between the ages of 16 and 21 in care or a Care Leaver has a pathway plan and up to 25 if you are in education or wish to continue to receive a service from us.

- Your first pathway plan will be based on and will include your Care Plan and any Personal Education Plan (PEP) you have. It will be written with you by your Social Worker
- Your pathway plan has information on the best way to support you towards full independence and adulthood. It will cover your education, employment, health, finance, social needs, relationships and housing.
- Your plan will be written in a way that should meet your individual needs, it will capture your hopes for the future and include your views. It will be regularly reviewed with you, at least every six months, to check that your goals and milestones are still right and are being met.

What is the role of my Social Worker?

- Visit you regularly and keep you up to date about any decisions made about you.
- Make sure that you stay healthy by having annual health assessments and health appointments when needed.
- Make sure you are getting all the help you need to in school/college or to access education/work with a Personal Education Plan (PEP).
- Talk to you about your plans, where you live, who will care for you, seeing your family and what will happen in the future so that these can be shared with your Independent Reviewing Officer (IRO) at your review meetings (and included in your My Care Plan for your records).
- Help you prepare for the changes when moving from the Children in our Care Team to the Pathway Team by having a Pathway Plan from 16 years old which details the help and support you will receive from us.
- Help you speak to people on your behalf when you don't feel able to.
- Provide financial help with things you need like travel, getting to school/college/work, seeing family, new clothes and fees for

What is the role of my Pathway Worker?

- To support you when you are leaving care to develop a strong sense of yourself and your identity, your background and history.
- To help you build on your family and significant positive relationships in preparation for adulthood.
- To enable you to hold a sense of belonging to the community where you live and connection to society in general.
- To help you to understand what support is available, so that you can make informed choices.
- To encourage you to develop confidence and self-esteem, and the ability to voice your opinions and thoughts on key issues that affect you.
- Support you to develop the necessary skills to live independently.

What we will do:

When you turn 17 ½ you will be allocated a Pathway Worker. It is their job to keep in touch and arrange to meet with you, at home or somewhere local to you. Your Pathway Worker will give you advice, information, and guidance to help you make the best decisions. Some young people who reach independence earlier may be allocated a Pathway Worker sooner. You will have your social worker and Pathway Worker's mobile number and email so you can contact them within office hours, and you will be told who you can speak to if they are not available.

You need to:

- Be there when we visit.
 - Share your news; we are there to support you and can only do that if you speak to us openly about what is going on in your life.
 - Talk to us about any problems you may have, so we can help
- Respect us in the same way that we respect you

Our promise to you

To make sure you are supported, we will:

- Give you your own allocated worker and make sure you know who you can contact if they are not available.
- Talk to you about when you about how to support your relationships with your family
- Regularly review how well we are supporting you.
- Make sure that adults, such as carers and workers, get the right training to understand the issues that affect children in care and care leavers, so that you get the best support possible.
- Make sure you understand your rights and entitlements as a care leaver.

To guide you and treat you well, we will:

- Make sure your allocated worker stays in touch and visits you regularly to see how you are.
- Write a Pathway Plan alongside you and will make sure your wishes and feelings and aspirations are captured.
- Talk to you about why decisions are made and explain this clearly in a way you can understand.
- Make sure your allocated worker doesn't change unless there is a good reason for it.
- Discuss with you if you would like to keep your IRO after you turn 18 to continue independent review of your Pathway Plan for up to a year
- Support you to make a complaint or refer you to Advocacy if you need to.

To help you be healthy, we will:

- Make sure you receive information and support to maintain a healthy lifestyle.
- Respect your right to confidentiality.
- Make sure you recognise the importance of wellbeing and have access to appropriate health and support services.
- Ensure you know how to access to Health services which include sexual health and contraception, dental health and emotional wellbeing.

YOU STILL MATTER!

Help and support: Our enhanced Local Offer

Local authorities have a legal duty to support you to make the transition from care to adulthood. It is our responsibility to make sure you know what services are available to you, and what you can expect to receive from us as your corporate parents.

This Enhanced Local Offer for Care Leavers aims to clearly set out in one document what you are entitled to and what we expect from you and help you to make the most of your independence. Over the following pages, you will be able to learn more about:

- Your money and official documents
- Where you live
- Your education, employment and training opportunities
- Your health and safety
- Care Leavers who are Parents
- Care Leavers who are over 21
- Care Leavers who are over 25
- Care Leavers in Custody
- Care Leavers who are refugees
- How to get your voice heard

Your money and official documents

This section gives you information on what financial help you can expect from the Children in our Care Team and The Pathway Team.

We provide financial advice and support to help you prepare for living independently and manage your money. To do this we will:

- Make sure that you have the advice you need to learn how to manage your money and that this is written in your Pathway Plan
- Help you to open your own bank account and learn how to manage your money, so that you avoid getting into debt.
- Help you to get identification documents, (important pieces of paper about you) such as a passport, birth certificate and provisional driving licence.
- Help you to get your National Insurance (NI) number. Every adult in the country has their own NI number, so that records about their benefits, taxes and pensions are kept. Your Social Worker will write a letter or help you fill in a form to apply for it before you leave care.
- Help you to access universal credit drop in for advice.
- Help you when you make your first claim for benefits at 18, by supporting you with a personal allowance for up to six weeks while your benefits claim is being processed.
- Help you if you are unable to claim benefits by supporting you financially for a longer period while your entitlements are being established, as set out in your Pathway Plan.
- Help you to purchase furniture and white goods, such as washing machines and fridges, when you are setting up your home through a Setting up home grant.
- Where necessary, we give you financial assistance with the cost of health, dental or optician services.

The DadPad app available for dads within North Yorkshire and York. Created to provide dads with support and knowledge to help them with their new-borns.

Refugees

We recognise that York is not your country of origin, and you will have unique needs.

There may be uncertainty around your immigration status, particularly if you have claimed asylum, have leave to remain or are awaiting a decision on an immigration application. It is very hard for anyone to predict in which way claims or applications will be resolved.

We understand that this can be very hard and worrying. It is our job to support you in managing this and ensuring that your applications are being processed and that you have the correct legal support in place.

If you are in touch with any family members, either in the UK or abroad, support will be provided to maintain contact once sensible checks have been made (and there hasn't been any indication of risk. This support may include, providing international phone cards and facilitating visits.

<https://www.speakupyork.co.uk/guide-young-refugees>

- We will support you in gaining your leave to remain.
- Whilst you do not have recourse to public funds, we will provide you with a weekly allowance.
- Whilst you do not have leave to remain, we will ensure that you have somewhere to live.
- Provide translators for important meetings.
- Encourage and support you in accessing education and training.
- We will support you in connecting with family and important people.
- Support your cultural identity.

Care leavers who are over 21

We continue to offer support to Care Leavers aged over 21 years until you turn 25 in line with your needs and wishes and feelings. If at any point you no longer require a service from us, this is ok! You can ask multiple times to have a service reinstated up until the age of 25.

The support we will provide to you if you do not have a Pathway Worker or Pathway Plan includes:

- Support and advice from our duty service (Monday – Friday 1pm- 5pm)
- Targeted housing advice and support from our Accommodation Officer
- Council Tax exemption in York for CYC tenancies (see finance section)
- Access to your setting up home grant if you haven't accessed it
- Support in education, training and employment via our Education, Training and Employment advisor
- Invitation to Pathway events, activities and partner initiatives
- You will be sent our seasonal Newsletter to provide you with updates and information across the year
- Access to the Pathway Padlet

In addition to the above, if you request leaving care support at any point after the age of 21 and up to the age of 25, we will assess your needs and depending on your identified needs:

- Develop a pathway plan setting out the support to be provide allocate a named pathway worker. (Although we will try, we cannot guarantee this will be your previous worker)
- The amount of support and the frequency of contact that you receive from your pathway worker will depend on your individual circumstances and wishes.

When you need us, we will be here – you STILL Matter!

Care leavers who are over 25

As Corporate Parents we are still here when young people need us beyond the age of 25. We want you to know that 'You Still Matter'. This is about having someone to turn to when advice or support is needed, alongside having someone to share positive news and celebrations with.

Our offer post 25 will include:

- Lifelong access to English and Maths through adult learning
- Introduction to RAISE York Family Hubs for access to services such as debt advice or parenting support.
- You can still come to us for information, advice and guidance through our duty service
- There will be no more pathway plans (but we can help you plan your life).
- We won't chase you but we will be here if you need us
- We would love to hear how you are getting on so please do call or write in with your news or just for a catch-up.

Care leavers in custody

We will be there for any of our young people in custody. This will include making arrangements to collect you when you are released and make arrangements so that you have somewhere to go. We will stay in touch by visiting or writing to you depending on what you want.

We will also:

- Provide you with a payment of £20 per month until you are 21 years old, unless agreed otherwise.
- Ensure your Pathway Worker will make a case for any additional funding for hardship support you may need.
- If you are in custody when you are under 21 we will save your Birthday and Christmas gifts for when you are released.
- Be actively involved in any resettlement planning for you.
- Assist you with keeping in touch with friends and family if you want this.
- With your consent working with the professionals around you to understand your plans.

How to get your voice heard

I Still Matter

Having a voice and knowing your rights are important when you are a Care Leaver, and this document will hopefully help you to understand what support and advice is available to you.

Advocacy

You have a right to access the support of an independent advocate from Speak Up.

An advocate can help you with anything that is important to you, provide you with information, help you to understand what's happening and why and make sure that you have the support you are entitled to.

An advocate can:

- help you to express and communicate your views, wishes and feelings
- help you understand your rights, entitlements, and options
- help you understand information and decisions
- support you if you feel like workers or services are not listening to you

- help you to be more involved when decisions are being made
- help you to say if you're unhappy with the support you're receiving or if you would like to make a complaint
- go to meetings with you or on your behalf
- represent your views, wishes and feelings and champion your rights and entitlements
- help to better understand what professionals are saying

Led by YOU

An Advocate is only interested in you and what you want. They work on your behalf and based on what you tell them to do. They work independently from your local authority and children's services. The service is completely free.

Advocacy is confidential, and your Advocate won't talk to anyone without asking your permission (unless you are putting yourself or someone else in danger).

If you would like the support of an Advocate, please contact us on the details below.

Children in Care council and Care Leavers Forum delivered by Speak Up

York's Children in Care Council and Care Leavers' Forum exists to make sure that all children and young people who are cared for (or were previously cared for) by City of York Council have the chance to share their views, with the aim of helping shape and influence the services and policies that affect them and other young people with care experience.

This is important because you know best what you want from the services that support you!

Getting involved

There are lots of ways for you to have your say, you don't have to attend our monthly meetings, though we always welcome new members.

Monthly meetings – I Still Matter (ISM) is our monthly meeting the groups aim is to offer practical solutions to a variety of issues that affect all care leavers. You will be supported I Still Matter will support you to express your views to help make the transition from care to independence a better experience for you and others.

Individual Consultation If you don't want to attend the groups you can still have your say by meeting or talking to one of our Corporate Parenting and Co-Production Advisors.

Corporate Parenting and Co-production Advisors aim to ensure all young people's views are accounted for, so that every young person feels valued and cared for. They understand that speaking to professionals can sometimes be overwhelming for young people, so they seek to be the connection between young people and the Corporate Parenting Board.

Online

We have a closed facebook group where you can get involved and share your views on the issues we are consulting on. www.facebook.com/groups/smtim

There are also opportunities to get involved in projects, delivering training or being a member of our experienced interview panels. You can get involved with as much or as little as you like.
