1. VOLUNTEERING INFORMAL SURGERY

Heworth Ward Committee hosted an informal surgery style meeting which focussed mainly on the theme of volunteering. Residents were able to:

- Speak directly to their local councillors.
- Contribute towards the ward committees' consultation for the ward Neighbourhood Charter and make local scheme suggestions.
- Sign up for involvement in ward committee projects taking place at South Beck, Glen Gardens, Glen Allotments and along the River Foss.
- Speak to local PCSOs and find out about the It's Up 2U volunteering project for young people.
- Find out about the work of the Heworth Planning Panel.
- Find out about York's Yorkshire in Bloom competition application and sign up to become involved in next year's competition.
- Find out about volunteering opportunities available for young people via York Community & Voluntary Services.
- Give their views on the Tang Hall Asset Management Plan

- Find out, and sign up for, Age Concerns' befriending service.
- Find out about work taking place at Hempland Allotments
- Find out about reading projects taking place over the summer via York Library Services.
- Find out the latest developments regarding the Discus Bungalows Regeneration Project.
