
Health and Wellbeing Board

21st July 2021

Report of the Chair of The York Health and Care Collaborative.

Summary

1. The Health and Wellbeing Board is asked to consider a report on the work of the York Health and Care Collaborative which is attached at Annex A.
2. The Collaborative is chaired jointly by Dr Emma Broughton and Dr Rebecca Field, who will present the report at the meeting.

Background

3. The York Health and Care Collaborative is a multi-agency group that brings together a range of organisations involved in health and care in the city. As such it contributes to the delivery of the Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy and is instrumental in the implementation of the NHS Long Term Plan in York.
4. At its meeting in October 2020, the Health and Wellbeing Board agreed that the York Health and Care Collaborative provide regular reports on its activities; this is the second report.

Consultation

5. York Health and Care Collaborative includes representation from the Voluntary Sector, who have been engaged right from the start and throughout. As a relatively new organisation, we have not held any formal public consultation to date.

Options

6. There are no specific options for the Health and Wellbeing Board to consider.

Strategic/Operational Plans

7. The work of the York Health and Care Collaborative contributes to the implementation of the NHS Long Term Plan (2019) which is a strategic objective for all NHS Organisations
8. York Health and Care Collaborative priorities for 2021/2022 cover, prevention, ageing well/frailty, mental health and children and young people, all of which align with the Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy.

Implications

9. It is important that the priorities of the Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy and the objectives of the Long-Term Plan in relation to integration are delivered.

Recommendations

10. The Health and Wellbeing Board are asked to;
 - a. note the report of the Chair of the York Health and Care Collaborative

Reason; there is a shared objective of improving the health and wellbeing of the population. The York Health and Care Collaborative is unique in bringing together; providers and commissioners of health and social care services (from the NHS and City of York Council), colleagues from City of York Public Health together with the voluntary sector as a means of working on joint priorities to achieve this objective. The York Health and Care Collaborative agreed to provide regular updates on its work and progress.
