OUTCOME OF COMMUNITY SAFETY

‘Over the ten years to 2014, in North Yorkshire and the City of York, 125 people will still be alive through the work of the new Fire & Rescue Service. This will be due to the Service having significantly reduced the likelihood and severity of fire and other emergencies. We will achieve this through the dedication of our staff working in partnership with other agencies in the community.’

(On target to achieve 151, but subject to change)
