11 Living well with dementia in care homes	A big gap in service provision is the lack of a specialist in-reach service for non specialist care homes	Priority 1	Health lead
	A particular concern for some of our members was the question of inappropriate use of anti-psychotic medication for people with dementia. 14 A joint commissioning strategy for dementia	The CYC Transition Board is preparing new arrangements for commissioning which will include dementia care. These arrangements will take account of the new GP Commissioning Consortium and new boards such as Health & Wellbeing. The imminent transfer of mental health services to Leeds Partnerships NHS Foundation Trust is another important development which will affect local planning		NYY Joint Strategy to be considered by Cabinet Member  Shadow Health and Wellbeing Board to be established  Joint Commissioning plans agreed through Adult Commissioning Group – Dementia agreed as a priority and on the agenda of Sept 11	Oct 11  Oct 11	AD Integrated Commissioning  AD Integrated Commissioning

15 Improved assessment and regulation of health and social care services and of how systems are working for people with dementia and their carers	We believe that this objective is particularly important, bearing in mind that at least two thirds of people in care homes have dementia. It is closely related to objective 11 (living well with dementia in care homes) CYC have introduced additional quality monitoring for residential homes and other services for which they are responsible and this includes input from service users and carers. We welcome this initiative and recommend that this scheme is kept under review	Priority 1	We will continue to monitor customer /carer feedback via our contract monitoring process. And will work with JRF Dementia Without Walls project to listen to people with dementia over the coming year	Ongoing July11-12	AD Integrated Commissioning AD Integrated Commissioning
