4. Reprourement of Education Case Management System

Resolved: That agreement be given to a single contract for re-procurement of the main education case management system in order to secure capital savings and avoid increases in revenue costs for the next 5 years (as detailed at Annex A).

Reason: To ensure the that councillors consider routine procurement decisions over £250k in value in line with procurement regulations and the public have the opportunity to see transparent decision-making in operation relating to major procurements.
