3. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RECEIPT OF PETITIONS

Resolved:

- i. That the Chief Operating Officer be recommended to note the petitions and updates given in this report and approve the proposed way forward for the resolution of the items raised in the petitions.

Reason: To ensure actions to address the concerns raised in these petitions were considered and developed on to progress outcomes to the petitions.

4. DIRECTORATE OF PLACE 2021/22 TRANSPORT CAPITAL PROGRAMME – MONITOR 2 REPORT

Resolved:

- i. That the Chief Operating Officer be recommended to approve the amendments to the 2021/22 Directorate of Place Transport Capital Programme.

Reason: To implement the council's transport strategy identified in York's third Local Transport Plan and the Council Priorities, and deliver schemes identified in the council's Transport Programme.

5. BURTON STONE LANE – WARD COMMITTEE SCHEME – TRAFFIC CALMING IMPROVEMENTS

Resolved:

- i. That the Chief Operating Officer be recommended to approve option 3 for implementation (the proposals as consulted on plus amendments following the road safety audit) subject to the Ward Committee confirming that they have sufficient funds.

Reason: To provide a refresh of the traffic calming on this section of road to address residents' concerns over the increasing speed and volume of vehicles, with appropriate amendments to ensure the scheme is as safe as possible.

6. TADCASTER ROAD SUSTAINABLE TRANSPORT SCHEME - FURTHER DETAIL

Resolved:

- i. That the Chief Operating Officer be recommended to approve the proposals set out in the report for delivery of the Tadcaster Road Sustainable Transport Scheme.

Reason: This will allow specification and delivery of the Sustainable Transport Scheme for Tadcaster Road.
