

All national apps send data via an email address and this is manually entered into the CRM.

The CYC website online reporting offers the same functionality and is directly integrated to the CRM.