	DRAFT T	ERMS OF REFERE	NCF
Extended Schools Board
	NAME	POST HELD	AGENCY
Membership	Executive Members Cllr Carol Runciman Cllr Keith Aspden Cllr Christian Vassie Health Jacqui Dawson Jen Slaughter		Executive Member – Children's Services Executive Member – Youth & Soc. Incl. Executive Member – Leisure & Culture Health Visitors Acute Trust
	LCCS Paul Murphy Maggie Tansley Jo Sheen/Sue Ralph Richard Hartle Mark Ellis Judy Kent/Linda Murphy/Bernie Flanagan		Assistant Director, Partnerships Education Planning HR Finance Access Children's Trust
	Paul Herring Ken Exton Fiona Williams Dave Meigh Alistair Gourlay Jo Gilliland Gill Cooper Kay Ledger/Sue Foster/Sarah		Youth Children's Centres Libraries Parks & Open Spaces Adult Learning Sport Arts Training & Development Unit
	Beynon Sue Pagliaro John Catran Debbie Ackroyd Stephanie Windsor Simon Page Joe Cocker Steve Grigg Jess Haslam John Roughton/Ruth Love Yvette Bent Howard Lovelady		Governance Link Advisers Inclusion Adviser Early Years Advisor Youth Offending Local Safeguarding Children Board SEN Services for Disabled Children Social Services Behaviour Management Looked-after Children
	School Reps. Kay Christian (Arc. Holgate's) Mike Scofield (Haxby Road) Chris Nicholson (PRU)/George Gilmore (Applefields)		Secondary Primary Special
	EYESS Mark Barnett Heather Marsland/Rosemary Flanagan/Barbara Mands Sharon McIntyre/Nicola Sawyer Ann Spetch Mary Bailey Niall McVicar		Schools EYESS Heads Policy & Planning/Pathfinder Managers Extended Schools AdvisersPlay FIS
	Sabbir Ahmed Voluntary Organisations		Business Support

Colin Stroud/Natasha Almond Anne Pullipy Gail Tams ? EYESP Peggy Sleight Central Government Services Jackie Willbughby David Asher Other Council Departments Phillip Callow Tom Brittain Churches Colin Hardy Dr Ann Lees Unions Barbara Reagan Androa Dudding/Jackie Richardson Members/Rep resentation Terms of Reference 1. To act as a multi-agency forum and enable partners to participate in the development of Extended Services to the system of the Budget of the Schools Porum for the allocation of the Extended Schools Sovices so that expectations of integrated working are clear and easily achieved. 3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Schools budget under the different headings of the Core offer. 4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate uninversal pathinfider/pilot intitiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Decision making Decision making Decision and by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and orime reduction. To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to pressor or specific interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to pressor or specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also; To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to pressor or specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;
Anne Pulleyn Gail Tams ? RSVP Homestart NSPCC EVESP Peggy Sleight Central Government Services Jackie Willoughby David Asher Other Council Departments Philip Callow Tom Brittain Churches Colin Hardy Dr Ann Lees Unions Barbara Reagan Andrea Dudding/Jackie Richardson Parents ie parent champions etc Extended Services ie Alter School manager etc Parents of Reference Parents ie parent champions etc Extended Services ie Alter School manager etc Parents of Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services to that expectations of integrated working are clear and easily achieved. 3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Schools budget under the different headings of the core offer. 4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate universal pathinderipile Intaitives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decision made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, lamilies and orime reduction. To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also; in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also; in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group.		Colin Stroud/Natasha Almond		CVS
Gail Tams Peggy Sleight Chair - EYESP
Proposed Additional Members 1. To act as a multi-agency forum and enable partners to participate in the development of Extended Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations of integrated working are clear and easily achieved. 3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Schools budget under the different headings of the core offer. 4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate universal pathinder/pitol initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Decision making Decision made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: • Views of children, young people, families and other community members. • Shared Community Partnership Working • Principles of transparency • Evidence base • Inclusive working and services • The need to promote sustainability of services. • Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crimine recommunities in the area and n
EYESP Peggy Sleight Central Government Services Jackler Willoughby David Asher Other Council Departments Philip Callow Tom Brittain Churches Colin Hardy Dr Ann Lees Unions Barbara Reagan Andrea Dudding/Jackle Richardson Parents ie parent champions etc Extended Services ie After School manager etc Presentation Terms of Reference 1. To act as a multi-agency forum and enable partners to participate in the development of Extended Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services so that oxpectations of integrated working are clear and easily achieved. 3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Schools budget under the different headings of the core offer. 4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate universal pathfinder/pilot initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a community for the core offer. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decision making the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, lamilies and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, families and community in the representative will be to promote bustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and community
Peggy Sleight Chair - EYESP		:		1131 00
Peggy Sleight Chair - EYESP		E)/E0D
Central Government Services Jackle Willoughby David Asher
Jackie Willoughby David Asher Other Council Departments Philip Callow Tom Brittain Churches Colin Hardy Dr Ann Lees Unions Barbara Reagan Andrea Dudding/Jackie Richardson Peresentation 1. To act as a multi-agency forum and enable partners to participate in the development of Extended Services ie After School manager etc 1. To act as a multi-agency forum and enable partners to participate in the development of Extended Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services so that expectations of integrated working are clear and easily achieved. 3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Services so that expectations of all apartner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services so that expectations of integrated working are clear and easily achieved. 3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Services budget universal pathfinder/ploit initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Lettings Housing Lettin		Peggy Sleight		Chair - EYESP
Jackie Willoughby David Asher Other Council Departments Philip Callow Tom Brittain Churches Colin Hardy Dr Ann Lees Unions Barbara Reagan Andrea Dudding/Jackie Richardson Peresentation 1. To act as a multi-agency forum and enable partners to participate in the development of Extended Services ie After School manager etc 4. To act as a multi-agency forum and enable partners to participate in the development of Extended Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services so that expectations of integrated working are clear and easily achieved. 3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Schools budget under the different headings of the core offer. 4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate universal pathfinder/ploit initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combaling child poverty, health inequalities and orime reduction. To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of thildren, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of thildren, young peop
Jackie Willoughby David Asher Other Council Departments Philip Callow Tom Brittain Churches Colin Hardy Dr Ann Lees Unions Barbara Reagan Andrea Dudding/Jackie Richardson Peresentation 1. To act as a multi-agency forum and enable partners to participate in the development of Extended Services ie After School manager etc 4. To act as a multi-agency forum and enable partners to participate in the development of Extended Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services so that expectations of integrated working are clear and easily achieved. 3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Schools budget under the different headings of the core offer. 4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate universal pathfinder/ploit initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combaling child poverty, health inequalities and orime reduction. To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of thildren, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of thildren, young peop		Central Government Services
David Asher Other Council Departments Philip Callow Tom Brittain Churches Colin Hardy Dr Ann Lees Unions Barbara Reagan Andrea Dudding/Jackie Richardson Proposed Additional Members/Rep resentation 1. To act as a multi-agency forum and enable partners to participate in the development of Extended Services as of the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services so that expectations of integrated working are clear and easily achieved. 3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Schools budget under the different headings of the core offer. 4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate universal pathfinder/pilot initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Inclusive working and services of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of thildren, yo				Job Centre Plus
Other Council Departments
Proposed Additional Members/Rep resentation 1. To act as a multi-agency forum and enable partners to participate in the development of Extended Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services so that expectations of integrated working are clear and easily achieved. 3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Schools budget under the different headings of the core offer. 4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate universal pathfinder-pilot initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decision smade by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services Inclusive working and services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members Principles of transparency To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of children, young people, families in the area and not to press for specific interests of children, young people, families in the area and not to press for specific interests of children, young people, families		David Adrici		Olotou
Proposed Additional Members/Rep resentation 1. To act as a multi-agency forum and enable partners to participate in the development of Extended Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services so that expectations of integrated working are clear and easily achieved. 3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Schools budget under the different headings of the core offer. 4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate universal pathfinder-pilot initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decision smade by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services Inclusive working and services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members Principles of transparency To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of children, young people, families in the area and not to press for specific interests of children, young people, families in the area and not to press for specific interests of children, young people, families		Other Council Departments
Tom Brittain Churches Colin Hardy Dr Ann Lees Unions Barbara Reagan Andrea Dudding/Jackie Richardson Parents ie parent champions etc Extended Services ie After School manager etc Parents of Reference 1. To act as a multi-agency forum and enable partners to participate in the development of Extended Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services so that expectations of integrated working are clear and easily achieved. 3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Schools budget under the different headings of the core offer. 4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate universal pathfinder/pilot initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Yiews of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in divide role the types to respecific inte				1 10
Churches Colin Hardy Dr Ann Lees Unions Barbara Reagan Andrea Dudding/Jackie Richardson Parents ie parent champions etc Extended Services ie After School manager etc 1. To act as a multi-agency forum and enable partners to participate in the development of Extended Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services so that expectations of integrated working are clear and easily achieved. 3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Schools budget under the different headings of the core offer. 4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate universal pathfinder/pilot initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decision making Decision smade by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members
Colin Hardy Dr Ann Lees Unions Barbara Reagan Andrea Dudding/Jackie Richardson NUT Unison		Tom Brittain		Housing
Colin Hardy Dr Ann Lees Unions Barbara Reagan Andrea Dudding/Jackie Richardson NUT Unison
Colin Hardy Dr Ann Lees Unions Barbara Reagan Andrea Dudding/Jackie Richardson NUT Unison		Churches
Dr Ann Lees Unions Barbara Reagan Andrea Dudding/Jackie Richardson NUT Unison		Colin Hardy
Unions Barbara Reagan Andrea Dudding/Jackie Richardson		•
Barbara Reagan Andrea Dudding/Jackie Richardson		B174111 2000
Barbara Reagan Andrea Dudding/Jackie Richardson		Unions
Proposed Additional Members/Rep resentation Terms of Reference 1. To act as a multi-agency forum and enable partners to participate in the development of Extended Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Schools budget under the different headings of the core offer. 4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate universal pathfinder/pilot initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decision smade by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;				AUIT
Proposed Additional Members/Rep resentation 1. To act as a multi-agency forum and enable partners to participate in the development of Extended Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services so that expectations of integrated working are clear and easily achieved. 3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Schools budget under the different headings of the core offer. 4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate universal pathfinder/pilot initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and orime reduction. To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should al
Proposed Additional Members/Rep resentation Terms of Reference 1. To act as a multi-agency forum and enable partners to participate in the development of Extended Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services so that expectations of integrated working are clear and easily achieved. 3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Schools budget under the different headings of the core offer. 4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate universal pathfinder/pilot initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members				Unison
Additional Members/Representation Terms of Reference 1. To act as a multi-agency forum and enable partners to participate in the development of Extended Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services so that expectations of integrated working are clear and easily achieved. 3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Schools budget under the different headings of the core offer. 4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate universal pathfinder/pilot initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members		Richardson
Additional Members/Representation Terms of Reference 1. To act as a multi-agency forum and enable partners to participate in the development of Extended Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services so that expectations of integrated working are clear and easily achieved. 3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Schools budget under the different headings of the core offer. 4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate universal pathfinder/pilot initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members
Additional Members/Representation Terms of Reference 1. To act as a multi-agency forum and enable partners to participate in the development of Extended Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services so that expectations of integrated working are clear and easily achieved. 3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Schools budget under the different headings of the core offer. 4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate universal pathfinder/pilot initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members	Proposed	Parents ie parent champions etc
Name	_
Terms of Reference 1. To act as a multi-agency forum and enable partners to participate in the development of Extended Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services so that expectations of integrated working are clear and easily achieved. 3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Schools budget under the different headings of the core offer. 4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate universal pathfinder/pilot initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also; in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;		Extended Softiood to Filter Softool manager sto
Terms of Reference 1. To act as a multi-agency forum and enable partners to participate in the development of Extended Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services so that expectations of integrated working are clear and easily achieved. 3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Schools budget under the different headings of the core offer. 4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate universal pathfinder/pilot initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transpaerncy Evidence base Inclusive working and services Inclusive working and services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members 1. To act as a anulti-agency forum and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also; in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;	Members/Rep
Terms of Reference 1. To act as a multi-agency forum and enable partners to participate in the development of Extended Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services so that expectations of integrated working are clear and easily achieved. 3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Schools budget under the different headings of the core offer. 4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate universal pathfinder/pilot initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members 1. To act as a multi-agency for ferme and easily achieved. 2. To make recommended Schools across the City of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also; in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;	resentation
Services to ensure the core offer is fully met by all schools across the City of York. 2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services so that expectations of integrated working are clear and easily achieved. 3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Schools budget under the different headings of the core offer. 4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate universal pathfinder/pilot initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also; in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;	Terms of	1. To act as a multi-agency forum a	and enable partners to pa	articipate in the development of Extended
2. To make recommendations to all partner organisations on all aspects of the delivery of Extended Services so that expectations of integrated working are clear and easily achieved. 3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Schools budget under the different headings of the core offer. 4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate universal pathfinder/pilot initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members Members
Services so that expectations of integrated working are clear and easily achieved. 3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Schools budget under the different headings of the core offer. 4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate universal pathfinder/pilot initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;	Reference
3. To provide a steer on priorities to the Schools Forum for the allocation of the Extended Schools budget under the different headings of the core offer. 4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate universal pathfinder/pilot initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;
budget under the different headings of the core offer. 4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate universal pathfinder/pilot initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;
4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate universal pathfinder/pilot initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services Inhe need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members Members 4. To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;
universal pathfinder/pilot initiatives. 5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services Inclusive working and services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;
5. To monitor, review and evaluate effectiveness and efficiency of the Extended Services. 6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;		4. To act as a consultative forum for shared targets and agendas when considering appropriate
6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board. Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;
Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members Members Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership by: Inclusive working and by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: To participles of transparency Evidence base To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;
Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members Members Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership by: Inclusive working and by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: To participles of transparency Evidence base To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;
Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group and the terms of reference may evolve over time. Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members Members Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership by: Inclusive working and by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: To participles of transparency Evidence base To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;		6. To act as a conduit in receiving and reporting mechanisms to DCSF and York OK Board.
Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services Inclusive working and services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members Members Members Members Members Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Information of the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Information of transparency Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services. The need to promote sustainability of services. To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;
Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services Inclusive working and services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members Members Members Members Members Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Information of the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Information of transparency Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services. The need to promote sustainability of services. To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;
Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services Inclusive working and services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members Members Members Members Members Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Information of the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Information of transparency Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services. The need to promote sustainability of services. To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;		Note: This is a formalisation of Extended Services business discussed at an existing partnership group
Decision making Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services Inclusive working and services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;
Decisions made by the Extended Services Partnership Board will be informed / underpinned by: Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services Inclusive working and services. The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;	Decision	and the terms of reference may eve	TTO OVOI MINO.
 Views of children, young people, families and other community members. Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;		Designer made by the Extended Co	orvione Dartnership Deer	d will be informed / undersissed by
 Shared Community Partnership Working Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also; 	making
 Principles of transparency Evidence base Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;
 Evidence base Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;
 Inclusive working and services The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;
 The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also; 		■ Evidence base
 The need to promote sustainability of services. Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also; 		 Inclusive working and services
 Local and national priorities for community cohesion, neighbourhood renewal, adult learning, combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members Members To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also; 		 The need to promote sustainability of services.
combating child poverty, health inequalities and crime reduction. Role of Members To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;
Role of Members To participate in a spirit of co-operation and genuine partnership. Whilst the overarching role of the representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;
Members representative will be to promote the best interests of children, young people, families and communities in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;	Role of in the area and not to press for specific interests of their own group, in doing their role they should also;
	IMAMBARA
.	MEHINGIS	l in the area and not to proce for and
Know what their interest group or constituency thinks;	MICHIDELS

Revised Annex E

	 Put across their views in the meetings and; Keep their organisations up do date with what is happening on Extended Services.
Statutory Plans/Drivers	 Contribution to Children and Young Peoples Plan National Policy on Extended Services
Frequency of Meeting	Every 3-4 months
Accountability & Reporting Arrangements	 Reporting to the Children's Centre Board Recommendations to the Schools Forum on funding for Extended Services