(published 11 June 2009)

68. We endorse the Minister's suggestion and recommendations by CIPFA and the Audit Commission that all local authorities should have an Audit Committee with specific responsibility for the scrutiny of the treasury management function. Guidance to local authorities to that effect should be given through appropriate amendment to the CIPFA Codes.

69. Members of audit committees need to take their responsibilities for that scrutiny seriously and need to ensure that they are properly trained. The CIPFA Treasury Management Code of Practice should make explicit the need for specific training in treasury management to be undertaken by those councillors with responsibility for overseeing treasury management arrangements, and the Audit Committee should be charged with ensuring that it is available and with monitoring its adequacy.

70. Guidance from CIPFA also notes that it is open to an authority to appoint someone other than an elected member and from outside the authority either to serve on or to chair the audit committee.^[89] The co-option of external members to audit committees in this manner offers an additional opportunity to local authorities to enhance the expertise available to the authority in the scrutiny of its treasury management function, and we encourage all local authorities to consider taking advantage of it.
