CIVIC ANNOUNCEMENTS

63. There were no Civic announcements.

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

64. The Lord Mayor reported that there had been fourteen registrations under the Council's Public Participation Scheme to speak at the meeting with regard to business associated with the setting of the Budget. As the Public Participation Session was limited by Standing Orders to 30 minutes, the first ten speakers would be called and the remaining four would be invited to address the meeting only if time allowed.

In the event, eleven speakers were called, as follows:-

- (i) Ceri Owen spoke against reductions in funding for services to vulnerable people, including those with a mental illness, learning, physical or sensory disabilities, older people, and carers. She handed in a petition to that effect, signed by 1,22 people.
- (ii) Joe Armer, of the Youth Council, spoke against cuts in services to young people; in particular, mental health support and careers advice.
- (iii) Poppy Hindby-Smith, of the Youth Council, also spoke against cuts in services to young people, with emphasis on the effects of the cuts on individual service provision.
- (iv) Simon Moss, of Tang Hall Residents' Association, spoke against the proposal to trial 24/7 opening of Hull Road Park, on the grounds that the dangers to users, particularly children, would outweigh the estimated savings.
- (v) Heather MacKenzie, of UNISON, spoke against the budget savings proposals in terms of their effect on Council staff and the wider economy, particularly in relation to the market testing of care services, cuts to children's and youth services, and the Conservative proposal to reduce the funding of facility time for union representatives.

- (vi) Peter Barton, of Fulford Residents' Association, spoke against any proposals to leave parks and open spaces open at night, due to the risk of a subsequent increase in anti-social behaviour, leading to extra cleaning and security costs.
- (vii) Ben Tanguay spoke in support of keeping the City's libraries open, and particularly Dringhouses Library, on behalf of Dringhouses residents and library staff and users.
- (viii) Owen Clayton spoke against the budget savings proposals, commenting that the cuts would hurt vulnerable groups disproportionately and that the proposal to fund highway maintenance from reserves showed that the Executive had its priorities wrong.
- (ix) Jennifer Clayton spoke against cuts to Council-funded mental health services, from the perspective of someone who had benefited from receipt of these services.
- (x) Philip Crowe spoke in objection to the proposal to cease the targeted mental health in schools project.
- (xi) Ken Beavan spoke in support of proposals to reduce the amount spent by the Council on employment costs.

At this point, the meeting was disrupted by protesters and proceedings were delayed for approximately 15 minutes.
